Once upon a time, there was a young boy. His name was Aladdin and he lived in China with his mother. They were very poor.

One day, a rich man came to Aladdin's house. He gave Aladdin a magic ring.

"Would you like to work for me?" he asked Aladdin.

"Oh yes," said Aladdin, "because we're very poor!"

The man took Aladdin to a cave. "Go down into the cave," he said, "and find my magic lamp!"

Aladdin was scared because the man was very angry now. "Oh, Oh!" said Aladdin very quietly, "he is a bad old man!"

2

Aladdin went down into the cave. It was very dark and very cold. He looked for the magic lamp, but he could not see it. Then he turned a corner and jumped! "Woow!" said Aladdin.

There was a beautiful room, with a tree and jewels, and ... the magic lamp.

3

Aladdin took the magic lamp.

"Give me my lamp!" said the bad old man when he saw Aladdin. His eyes were big and angry. But Aladdin was a very clever boy.

"Let me out first!" he said.

"Nooo!" said the man, and he shut Aladdin in the cave.

4

Aladdin was scared, but then he remembered the ring.

"Hmm," he said, "this is a magic ring."

He looked at it, he smelled it, he tasted it, and ... nothing! But then he rubbed it and Woosh! a big green genie flew out.

"I'm the genie of the ring!" he said.

5

"What can I do for you?" he asked, "You can have anything you want!"

"I'd like to see my mother," said Aladdin.

Woosh! He was in his mother's kitchen.

"This is a surprise!" said his mother, "but what's that dirty old thing you've got?"

"... let me clean it," she said.

6

Woosh! A big red genie flew out of the lamp! "I'm the genie of the lamp!" he said, "What can I do for you?"

"I'd like some money and a new house for my mother," said Aladdin.

And Woosh! - they were rich!

7

Now Aladdin was a handsome young man. One day he went to the city with his mother and he saw a beautiful young woman.

"She's nice!" said Aladdin, "I'm going to marry her!"

"She's the Emperor's daughter," said his mother,

"You can't marry her!"

"Watch this!" said Aladdin ...

8

... He rubbed the lamp and Woosh! they were in the Emperor's castle with the Emperor and his daughter.

"Hmm," said the Emperor, "you're a very handsome man. Are you rich?" he asked.

"Oh, yes," said Aladdin, "I'm very rich!"

"Then you can marry my daughter!" smiled the Emperor.

9

Aladdin lived in a big castle with his wife.

One morning, when Aladdin was not there, a man came to the castle.
 "New lamps for old!" he said.
 "We've got an old lamp!" said Aladdin's wife, "...I'd like a new one please."
 And she gave the man the magic lamp.

10

But it was the bad old man!

"Aha!" he said happily, "now I have my magic lamp!"

He quickly rubbed it and Woosh! The big red genie flew out. The man pointed to Aladdin's castle and he said, "Take that castle and put it in the middle of the forest!"

11

Aladdin was very angry when he could not find his castle.

"That bad old man ..." he said and he rubbed his magic ring.

Whoosh! The big green genie flew out of the ring.

"What can I do for you?" he said.

"Find my castle!" said Aladdin, "and bring it here!"

12

And - Whoosh! - there was Aladdin's castle again.

Aladdin ran into the castle and saw the bad old man. Aladdin was very fast and he quickly caught the old man. He took the magic lamp and rubbed it.

"I don't want to see this man again," he said.
